

a warm welcome and a fair trade cuppa

Media Release

from [organisation]

Contact: [name] [tel. Number]

[church] brewing up to support Fairtrade

On [church] will be holding a [coffee morning or event] to mark this year's Big Brew during Fairtrade Fortnight, from 26th February to 9th March 2007.

Everyone is welcome at [location] between [times], and [explain your event].

The aim of the Big Brew is to promote Fairtrade products and encourage people to enjoy a social event arranged by their local church. In North and East Yorkshire hundreds of churches are holding events, as part of a campaign to promote fairtrade products and work towards registering their churches as fairtrade churches.

Notes for Editors:

The Big Brew is sponsored by the Fair and Just Trade Project, run by North & East Yorkshire Churches. The campaign co-ordinator is Nicholas Nightingale: Westfield Farm, Sheriff Hutton, York YO60 6QQ
01347 878423 tradejustice@barbicannet.demon.co.uk

The FAIRTRADE Mark is an independent consumer label which appears on products as an independent guarantee that disadvantaged producers in the developing world are getting a better deal.